REASON FOR RETURN

Try and Exchange:

Items which have been used and are eligible for a store credit must be free of pet hair, stains, smoke, and any other matter which may negate the return. We reserve the right to refuse or decrease the value of a return if these guidelines are not met. Please refer to www.everythingbirth.com for more information. Customers will be issued a store credit to be used online ONLY for the original amount of the product minus any coupons, discounts, or other price decreases.

New Returns:

Items returned for a refund must be in original packaging and have tags attached. These must be in new resale condition and received within 30 days of purchase date. Invoice must be included and please refer to www.everythingbirth.com policies section for more information on refunds. We can also issue a store credit for the amount paid minus any discounts.
